

General information

Become a member of the Mississippi-Rideau Source Protection Committee

The Mississippi-Rideau Source Protection Committee (SPC) includes members who represent municipal interests, economic interests and public interests. The SPC membership is undergoing a renewal in 2018 and 2019 to ensure that it remains in compliance with Ontario Regulation 288/07, the regulation that governs Source Protection Committees under Ontario's Clean Water Act.

Do you want to represent industry, commercial, small business, the environment or public interests on the Mississippi-Rideau Source Protection Committee? Apply by March 8, 2019.

Work with Chair Ken Graham to oversee the implementation of science-based source protection plans and their continued development, to protect municipal drinking water sources in the Mississippi Valley and Rideau Valley watersheds

Committee Composition

- 4 municipal representatives
- 4 economic sector representatives (agriculture, industry and commercial sectors) — 2 vacancies for industrial, commercial or small business representatives
- 4 public interest representatives (e.g., general public, environmental, First Nations, and non-governmental organizations) — 2 vacancies for public interest representatives

Summary of Committee Functions

- Oversee a science-based planning process to protect municipal drinking water sources in the Mississippi-Rideau Source Protection Region
- Guide the implementation of the Mississippi-Rideau source protection plan, amendments to the plan and assessment reports, and other source protection work in accordance with the Clean Water Act and its regulations

Source Protection Committee Member Obligations

The following requirements are set out in the regulation:

- Members must reside in, own or rent property in, be employed or operate a business in, or be employed by a municipality that is located within the boundaries of the Mississippi-Rideau Source Protection Region
- Members cannot be a current board or staff member of the Mississippi Valley Conservation Authority or the Rideau Valley Conservation Authority
- Once appointed, members must regularly attend SPC meetings and comply with the committee's code of conduct

SPC members should be willing and able to:

- Contribute positively to the development of amendments to the technical assessment report and the source protection plans, and oversee their implementation
- Attend meetings, normally two to three meetings annually
- Make a long-term time commitment to participate (ideally five years)
- Review and understand scientific and technical reports
- Prepare for meetings by reviewing agendas and reports in advance of the meeting
- Attend training sessions, participate at public meetings and open houses on occasion
- Act as a liaison for the interest(s) you are representing (bring commonly held opinions to the committee table and communicate back to the committee's work)
- Work with others collaboratively to solve problems and make decisions at the committee table
- Respect confidential information and abide by the process in place to safeguard confidential information

Member Qualifications

The Source Protection Authorities will consider the following when making appointments to the SPC:

- Proven ability to act as a liaison for the interest(s) being represented
- Excellent problem-solving, analytical, communication and organizational skills
- Knowledge of local watersheds, communities and issues
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively with groups and in a team environment
- Willingness to work with representatives from other sectors and interests
- Willingness and ability to travel the Mississippi-Rideau Source Protection Region

Remuneration

SPC members will be entitled to a per diem for their attendance at meetings and other events, as well as compensation for travel and other expenses.
