

Qualifications for SPC Members:

- Demonstrated ability to understand source protection science, concepts and technical reports;
- Proven ability to act as liaison for the sector(s) being represented;
- problem-solving, analytical, communication and organization skills;
- an openness to working together and with representatives from other sectors;
- knowledge of local watersheds, communities and issues;
- demonstrated ability to work with group dynamics and team environments; conciliatory decision-making skills;
- resides, owns property or a business and/or is employed in the source protection region; and
- willingness and ability to travel around the Mississippi-Rideau Region as required;

Roles and Responsibilities of SPC Members:

- attend meetings of the committee;
- act as liaisons by bringing forward common concerns from their knowledge and experience in their sector to the committee and assist in communicating the committee's work back to their sector;
- make decisions at the committee table;
- attend public information sessions and participate in public consultation forums; and
- respect confidential information and abide by the process in place to safeguard confidential information.

Remuneration

SPC members receive a per diem and mileage.